Dear publisher,
I would like to submit my book for your consideration for publication.

MANUSCRIPT SUBMISSION

Book Title: The Girl Who Went From Good To Sad To Mad To Bad To Sad To Bed to Better

Genre: Picture Book about friends, fights and feelings

Age: 4-7 year-olds      Word Count: 339

Synopsis:

Lani and Izzy are friends, but Lani struggles with something that happens at school when Izzy says she is mean. Lani goes through a potpourri of feelings as she works through the conflict. With the help of her mother and after some reflection at bedtime, Lani decides she wants to resolve the problem with Izzy and practices what she will say to her the next day.

Blurb:

Lani's day started with her feeling good, but things didn't stay that way. She went from feeling good to sad to mad to bad to sad to bed to better.

Where it may sit in the market:

Comments:

A child whom I had been helping with friendships and feelings came into my office one day and said, 'I went from good, to sad, to mad, to bad, to sad, to bed. I want to feel better.' Now there's an idea for a picture book if I had ever seen one. After helping her to feel better I asked her permission to quote her in my story. She obliged. A long title that tells a story in itself and will catch an eye in a bookshop or library shelf. The right illustrations will allow for speech, feelings and thought bubbles to add depth to the story.

Smilingly,

Steve Heron OAM
