Comments:

I searched under every leaf, bookshop and online and couldn't find any picture books that tackled this kid-friendly topic. (Except a couple of serious ones) I had a lot of fun creating this alphabet of creepy crawly things. I bumped into a real live entomologist whom I shared this book with. She was impressed with my research and helped out by telling me about the Zygotera (some kind of moth thing). An illustrator would have a ball creating the buggy creatures for this book.

Smilingly,

Steve Heron OAM
