School, Library and Festival Workshops

1. Wings in The Wind

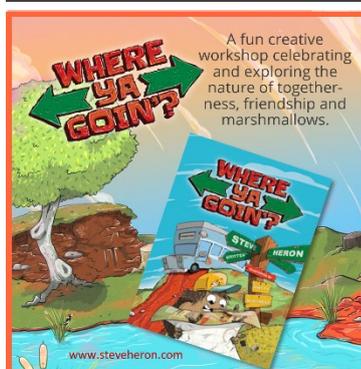

(Yrs 4-6) (1hr) Based on Steve Heron's middle-grade novel One Thousand Snapshots -- the second book in the Bayside Blues series (The first being Maximus)

- An engaging story of a search for belonging, hope, grief, friendships, and pre-adolescence.

(Published by Playtime Books – Shawline Publishing Group)

This workshop explores the W.I.N.G.S. acronym for creative and descriptive story-writing.

"Hope is wings in the wind."

2. Where Ya Goin'? Workshop

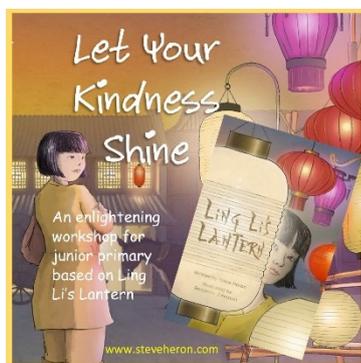

(Yrs 1-4) (1 hr) A fun, creative workshop

Celebrating and exploring the nature of togetherness, friendship and marshmallows.

Where is Echidna Going in his rickety old bus with a big bag of marshmallows? The journey of creating a picture book.

Based on the picture book "Where Ya Goin'?" by Steve Heron (Illustrated by Matty Mitchell) (Published by Wild Eyed Press)

Writing humorous stanzas about Aussie creatures.

3. Let Your Kindness Shine

(Yrs 1-4) (1 hr)

Join Ling Li on her quest to show her wisdom.

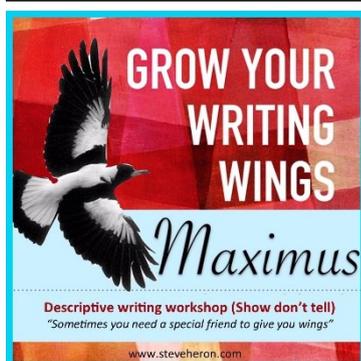

An enlightening workshop that will help children fill the world with compassion.

Based on Steve Heron's picture book "Ling Li's Lantern."

(Illustrated by Benjamin Johnston) (MidnightSun Publishing)

Lantern decorating (extra $1 per child)

"Wisdom without compassion is like a lantern without a flame."

4. Grow Your Writing Wings

(Years 4-6) (1hr)

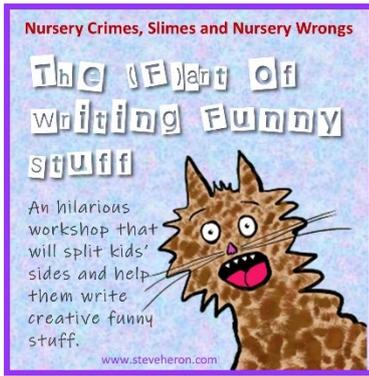

An emotional literary escapade based on Steve Heron's middle-grade novel 'MAXIMUS'. (First book in the Bayside Blues series)

(Published by Serenity Press)

Helping middle-grade children not be alone with their feelings.
